THE FIGHTING MEN

Words by
M.A.DeWolfe Howe

Music by George W. Chadwick

March With Chorus

Boston
C.C. Birchard & Company

To the Officers and Enlisted Men of the 102 Regt. Field Artillery

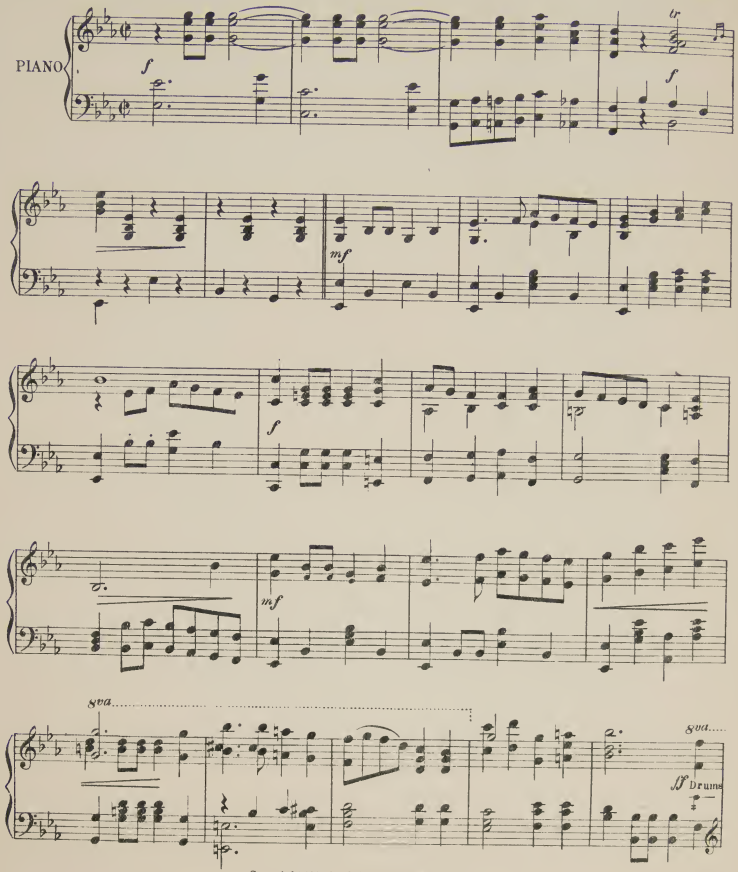
THE FIGHTING MEN

March with Chorus

Words by
M. A. DE WOLFE HOWE

G. W. CHADWICK



Copyright, 1918, by C. C. Birchard & Company

8va
cresc.
f
p CHORUS
1.
2.
1. A -
2. The
3. Brave ff
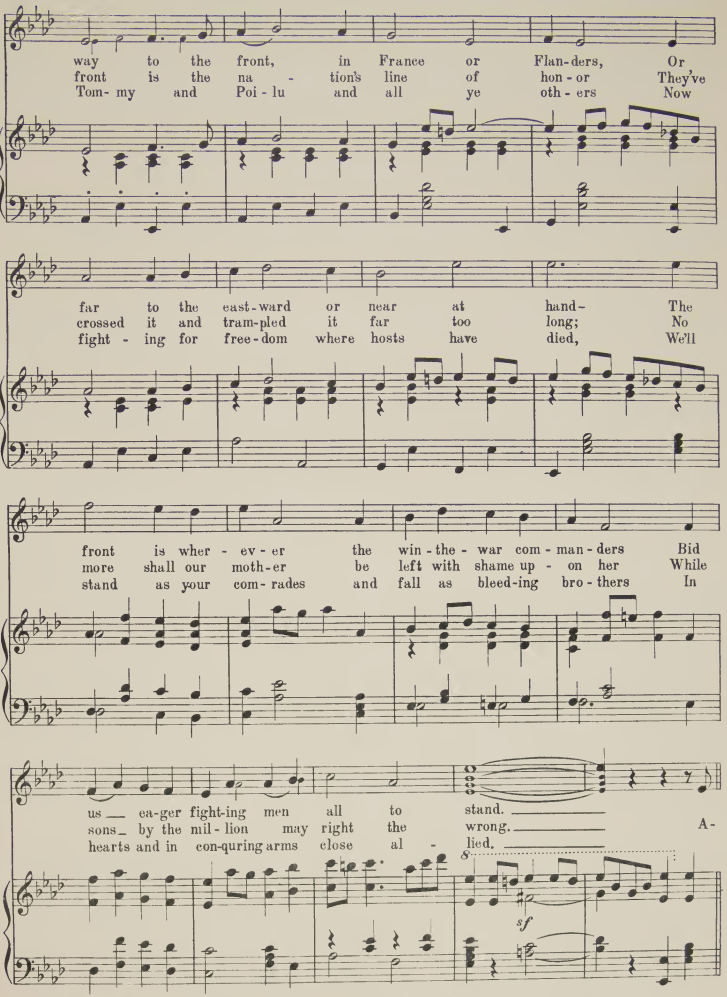
tr
sf
Fine.
p



way to the front, in France or Flan-ders, Or front is the na - tion's line of hon - or They've Tom- my and Poi - lu and all ye oth - ers Now far to the east-ward or near at hand- The crossed it and tram-pled it far too long; No fight - ing for free-dom where hosts have died, We'll front is wher - ev - er the win - the - war com - man - ders Bid more shall our moth-er be left with shame up - on her While stand as your com-rades and fall as bleed-ing bro - thers In us ea-ger fight-ing men all to stand.
sons by the mil - lion may right the wrong. A-hearts and in con-quring arms close al - lied.
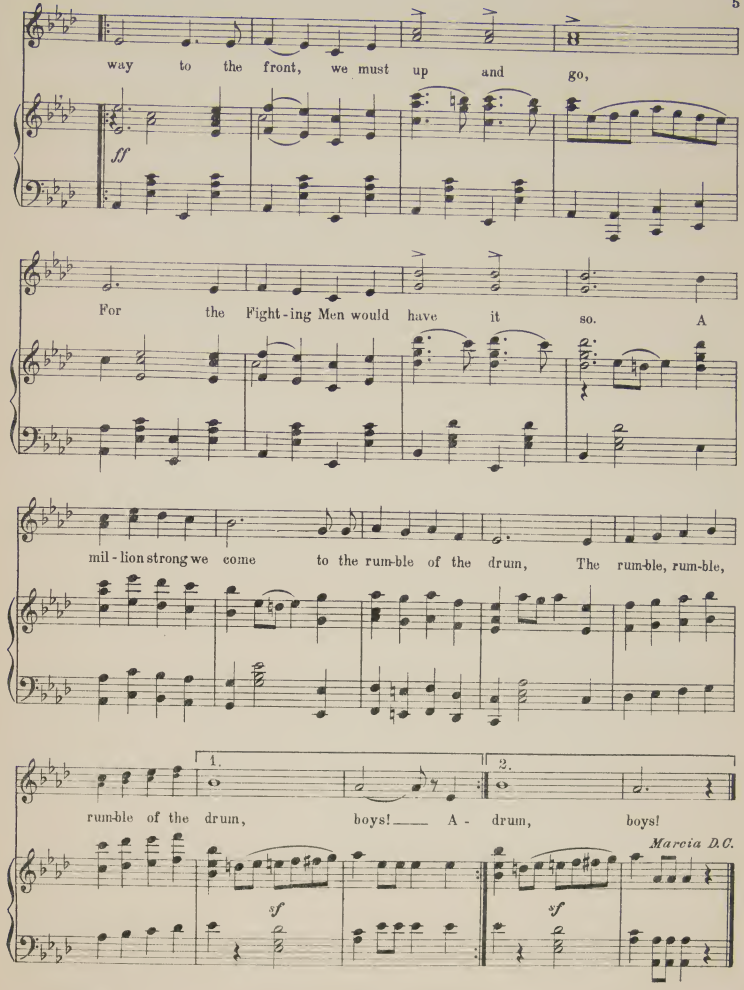
8
8
sf



way to the front, we must up and go,
ff
For the Fight-ing Men would have it so. A mil-lion strong we come to the rum-ble of the drum, The rum-ble, rum-ble, 1.
2.
rum-ble of the drum, boys! A- drum, boys!
Marcia D.C. sf
sf